Bid for funds

Simon Hewitt - who will be joining the PE Dept in Septmenber came to bid for funds for table tennis sets. It is the aim to introduce new sports to fit in with the new PE curriculum. Ideally 8 tables would be required. At a approx cost of £1992.00 (£249each) (includes bats and balls) for 4/5 star tables. PTA agreed in principal to fund approx. £1500 (The summer raffle funds to be used for this – advertise this in the newsletter and get PE dept to promote) with school putting the rest to. PTA to contact Simon to check all details.

Thank you from Mr Robinson and team who visited Tanzania – Marakifi project . Team presented a great DVD of the visit and thanked the PTA for funding equipment for the trip. This equipment can be re-used for other visits. Eventually it is the aim to have visits from the teachers/pupils from St Peter's to OLCHS and also for pupils of OLCHS to visit Tanzania. Marakifi committee busy fund raising for the various ongoing projects.

HEAD'S REPORT

Normandy Trip - 91 of the Yr7's had great trip last weekend. Very enjoyable and pupils well behaved as ever.

Internal exams underway. Therefore exam papers take priority for marking.

New appointments : PE/Maths/DT for Sept along with Chaplain MR Denis Jones.

Gym floor currently under repair due to leak – approx. £30000 for new floor.!

Y.E. team are through to the finals at Uclan – well done for getting to this stage.

Mike Fitzpatrick informed of F.G.M. awareness talk to be given to all pupils, as part of the OFSTED requirements into safeguarding of children/pupils. Staff have been trained and after discussions with the PTA it was agreed to invite Parents/guardians to an awareness /information meeting at OLCHS before speaking to the pupils.
