

Train to Teach in your local area

Applications now open

The Catholic Teaching Alliance (CTA) offers teacher training in conjunction with the University of Cumbria. Courses are available in local Catholic schools throughout Lancashire and the North West.

We are now looking for keen, enthusiastic people who hold a degree and who are interested in developing and teaching young people. You must be supportive of the Catholic ethos of the schools.

Primary, secondary and post 16 places are now available at our Preston campus:

- Our Lady's Catholic High School, Preston
- Cardinal Newman College, Preston

Secondary places at our Blackburn campus:

- St Bede's RC High School
